3RD BANCA D'ITALIA WORKSHOP ON MICROSIMULATION MODELLING

ADVANCING MICROSIMULATION MODELLING: METHODS, APPLICATIONS, AND INNOVATIONS

Rome, Banca d'Italia, July 4th 2025

CALL FOR PAPERS

Overview: We are very pleased to announce a call for papers for the upcoming 3rd Edition of the Banca d'Italia Workshop on Microsimulation Modelling. The workshop brings together researchers, practitioners, and policymakers to explore innovative methodologies and discuss applications of microsimulation modelling. The workshop will primarily focus on the distributional and labour supply effects of policy changes to the tax and benefit system affecting households' disposable income. Additionally, we welcome contributions on the development and application of microsimulation models for firms.

Professor Camille Landais (London School of Economics) will deliver the keynote speech.

Topics of Interest: We encourage submissions on, but not limited to, the following topics:

- 1. Distributional impacts of policy changes on households.
- 2. Labour supply responses to taxation and welfare reforms.
- 3. Development and application of microsimulation models for firms.
- 4. Integration of administrative and survey data into microsimulation.
- 5. Validation and calibration of microsimulation models.
- 6. Advances in computational techniques for microsimulation.
- 7. Policy analysis and decision support using microsimulation.

Submission Guidelines: Authors can submit extended abstracts (maximum 3 pages) or full papers to MicrosimWorkshop@bancaditalia.it.

Key Dates:

- Submission Deadline: April 18th 2025.
- Notification of Acceptance: May 9th 2025.
- Full Paper Deadline: Jun 20th 2025.

Review Process: All submissions will be reviewed by the Organizing Committee. Accepted papers will be presented at the workshop and included in the workshop proceedings.

Organizing Committee: Antonio Coran, Nicola Curci, Federica Daniele, Andrea Mattia and Antonella Tomasi - Banca d'Italia, Economics, Statistics and Research Directorate General, Structural Economic Analysis Directorate, Public Finance Division

For further information and for paper submissions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to your contributions and to seeing you at the workshop!
